Farewell Sisters—This weekend we bid “farewell” to Sister Theodosia and Sister Regina who will be temporarily leaving for the summer months to go back “home” to Mount St. Macrina in Uniontown for their summer duties and to prepare for the annual Pilgrimage on Labor day weekend. Before that, however, they will spend a little time enjoying some well-deserved rest and relaxation! “Go with God”, Sisters! “s’Bohom!” and have a safe a relaxing time until you return to us in September!

QUESTION: Who were Prime Apostles? ANSWER below...

The “prime Apostles” were Saints Peter and Paul. Peter was the first Pope to whom had been given the “keys to the Kingdom of Heaven”, and Saint Paul was the Apostle to the Gentiles (the non-Jewish people) Because of Saint Paul, you and I are Christians! Their feast day is celebrated on June 29th of each year!
